Summary

Establish a system of control by campus security officers of parked vehicles that violate the highway code, initially complemented by an informative brochure regarding the offences.

Aims

- Knowledge of conflictive points for campus traffic.
- Inform the University community about violations.
- Report to the Local Police the existence of vehicles blocking traffic on the campus and which are violating the highway code.
- Inform the Local Police, who must travel to the Campus (7.5 km), about the location of vehicles violating the highway code so that they can impose a fine.
- Provision of an offender database, with information about dates, times, types of vehicle, registration numbers, type of offence, road and location where they occur, report to the Local Police, photograph.
- Improve campus traffic quality for motor driven vehicles as well as pedestrians.
- Promote the use of peripheral car parks, reducing the movement of vehicles in campus streets.

Stakeholders

Company managing the Campus Security Service and the Local Police.

Background

Not available.

Description

To fulfill the objectives of the program, the following actions are being carried out:

- Surveillance of traffic violations on the campus.
- Placement of offence notices on the windscreen.
- Reports to the Local Police with the location of offending vehicles.
- Fill-in the control sheet with information about the offence.
- Photograph the offence.
- Record the offence in the computer system.
- Statistical analysis.

Indicators

- Comparable evolution of:
  - Types of offending vehicles.
  - Recidivists.
  - Number of reports to the Local Police.
  - Types of offence.
  - Location of the violations.
  - Evidence of fines.
- Number of violations.

Results

Not available.

Expense

No additional cost involved except for printing the control sheets.

Financing

UIB budget.

Findings

- Better understanding of traffic problems on the campus.
- Reduction of violations.
- Greater community awareness.
- Collaboration with the Local Police.
